

Sample Introduction to Welcome Speaker GERDA GOVINE, ED.D.

Dr. Gerda Govine educates and inspires as she shares her vast knowledge, experience and insight with audiences everywhere.

In the course of her career, she has developed and taught courses on diversity and inclusion, including supervisory skills in the workplace; consulted with companies on specific sexual harassment and employment discrimination issues and researched and developed grant programs and training courses.

She's consulted and worked with California State University Los Angeles, University of Nebraska Medical Center, Pasadena City College and in the private sector, companies like the Walt Disney Company and Fannie Mae Mortgage Company.

Highly recognized for her achievements and contributions, Dr. Govine has received honors from Business Life Magazine, the Power of One: Pasadenans Shaping Our Community, the YWCA, the City of Pasadena and others.

She holds masters degrees from both Columbia University and New York University and a doctorate from Columbia University Teachers College.

When Gerda Govine speaks, eyes are opened and people are inspired and educated.

Please help me welcome Dr. Gerda Govine!